The EXPLORERS Club

Directed by Mark Stephens

London, 1879. The prestigious Explorers Club is in crisis: their acting president wants to admit a woman, and their bartender is terrible. True, this female candidate is brilliant, beautiful, and has discovered a legendary Lost City, but the decision to let in a woman could shake the very foundation of the British Empire. Grab your safety goggles for some very mad science involving deadly cobras, irate Irishmen and the occasional airship. "Two parts Blackadder, a dash of Shaw, shake wildly and garnish with fresh feminist ire." – Time Out NY

SCHENECTADY ELFUNS

You are cordially invited to attend the Schenectady Elfuns Luncheon to be held at The Glen Sanders Mansion, One Glen Ave., Scotia, NY 12302 on Tuesday January 19, 2016. Our speaker will be Mary Liz Stewart, Executive Director of Underground Railroad History Project of the Capital Region, Inc. & Paul Stewart

Dark of night, tunnels, secret hidey-holes and daring escapes populate our images of Underground Railroad history. The notion of Quakers helping poor, oppressed escaped slaves informs how Underground Railroad history is portrayed in our textbooks, movies, and picture and chapter books. While the Underground Railroad is a piece of American history that is thought to be well known, research into period documents tells a very different story. Revisit this fascinating period in history, examining its public side, the role of African Americans and women, the myths vs. reality, and its relevance for today. An inspiring story when told by the voices of those who were there.
