Gina Gionfriddo's thoroughly winning comedy . . .

RAPTURE, BLISTER, BURN

Directed by Patrick White

After grad school, Catherine and Gwen chose polar opposite paths. Catherine build a career as a rockstar academic, while Gwen build a home with her husband and children. Decades later, unfulfilled in opposite ways, each woman covets the other's life, commencing a dangerous game of musical chairs. With searing insight and trademark wit, this comedy is an unflinching look at gender politics in the wake of 20th-century feminist ideals. "A thoroughly winning comedy about the topography of the women's movement and the lives that shaped it." – The Boston Globe
