RABBIT HOLE

"shifts perfectly from hilarity to grief"

Directed by Jennifer Van Iderstyne

Becca and Howie Corbett have everything a family could want, until a life-shattering accident turns their world upside down and leaves the couple drifting perilously apart. RABBIT HOLE charts their bittersweet search for comfort in the darkest of places and for a path that will lead them back into the light of day. A transcendent and deeply affecting play, which shifts perfectly from hilarity to grief.

Tickets only $14 (almost a 20% discount off regular $17 ticket price)

SCHENECTADY ELFUNS

You are cordially invited to attend the Schenectady Elfuns Luncheon to be held at The Glen Sanders Mansion, 1 Glen Avenue, Scotia, NY 12302 on Tuesday January 20, 2015. Our speakers Millie and Clark Gittinger will share their experience in retracing Shackleton's infamous voyage.

When Sir Ernest Shackleton led an exploration voyage to cross the continent of Antarctica on foot, while this didn't happen, the trip became one of the most epic stories of survival under some of the worst circumstances imaginable. The program will include pictures of some of the locations of this trip along with the wild life and natural beauty of the area.
