PRESENT

Noel Coward's final comedy

Star Quality

Directed by Donald Mealy

In his final comedy, Noel Coward takes us behind the scenes of a new West End production. Conjuring up a backstage world of talent and treachery, he creates a gallery of characters including a temperamental leading lady, a ruthless director, jaded old troupers and, caught in the middle, an innocent young playwright. From first rehearsal to opening night, becomes increasingly heart-wrenching . . . and hilarious. "This enchanting comedy is a tough, elegant and hilarious look at backstage life."
