By David Ives (adapted from the classic comedy by Pierre Corneille)

THE LIAR

"Astonishingly fresh, funny, totally appealing!" Directed by Joseph Fava

Paris, 1643. Dorante is a charming young man new in the capital, and he has but a single flaw; he cannot tell the truth. He meets Cliton, a manservant who cannot tell a lie, and falls in love with Clarice, who he mistakes for her friend Lucrece. Our hero does not know that Clarice is secretly engaged to his best friend Alcippe. Nor is he aware that his father is trying to get him married to Clarice, whom he thinks is Lucrece, who actually is in love with him. From all these understandings springs one of the Western world's greatest comedies.
